INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION MONTHLY SUMMARY

September 1-30, 2011

New, significant, and labor intensive cases received by the Investigations Unit increased approximately 30% of the previous month and included sex offenses, domestic violence, stalking, custodial interference, child abuse, assaults, mental subjects, drug activity, gang activity, and four new investigations involving thefts, identity thefts, frauds, or burglaries in addition to follow-up on existing active cases. Multiple sex offender registrations were completed at the police department, and gang members were contacted and intelligence gathered.

Members of the Investigations Unit began instructing the Law Enforcement class at Westlake High School and the NOVA program at Saratoga Shores and Sage Hills Elementary Schools. A gang presentation was also made to educators at the Westlake Interagency Network meeting.

Detectives received training from the Utah County Attorney's Office as part of their assignment to the Officer Involved Shooting Protocol Team.
