"Commitment to Service"

INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION MONTHLY SUMMARY

January 1-31, 2010

Investigations of Note

Though a recent domestic violence incident was later determined to have occurred in a nearby city, and not Saratoga Springs, the department Victim Services Unit provided emergency services to the victim and her children by providing them a room at a motel, food, and diapers. These resources were paid for by a grant from the Zion's Bank.

Detective Jesse Davis, the new NOVA instructor has completed presentations up to lesson four to Harvest Elementary, Sage Hills Elementary, and the Lakeview Academy. Detective Davis has received multiple compliments for his teaching and interaction with the students.

The Investigations Unit is investigating the unattended death of a resident, due to unknown causes and originally received as a hazardous materials and medical case.

Two registered sex offenders were registered this month, with two detectives either completing, or beginning sex offender registration training.
