City of Saratoga Springs Public Library to Extend Operating Hours; Seeks Additional Volunteers

Saratoga Springs – The City of Saratoga Springs Public Library is extending its hours beginning Thursday, January 2, 2014. The Library will open for an additional 18 hours each week. The new Library hours will be Monday through Thursday 10:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The Library will continue to be closed on Friday and Sunday.

The extended hours are a result of residents' requests and are also required by the Utah State Library to receive state certification. Once certified, the Saratoga Springs Public Library will be eligible to apply for State grants and eligible to join the Utah County Libraries coalition to allow shared use between neighboring libraries.

“The extended hours will better meet the needs of our residents and help the Library meet Utah State Library requirements for certification,” said Library Director Melissa Grygla. “However, with the additional hours we are also in need of additional volunteers.”

To better serve patrons, the Library is seeking additional volunteers for the following times: Mondays and Wednesdays from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and Saturdays from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Volunteers are asked to commit to at least 2 hours on a consistent basis. Volunteer applications are available at the Library or online at www.saratogaspringscity.com/library.
